

Traditional Carving Competition

Fruits & Vegetables Carving Competition

Saturday, May 21, 2016

Rules & Regulations

Competition Rules

1. If you have carved for more than 3 years, you are considered a professional.
2. Potential competitors must have a valid passport to travel (for the Grand Prize winner) and must be at least 18 years of age.
3. The Grand Prize of a round trip ticket is only for the professional division's winner.
4. Carving tools and all other related supplies/materials will NOT be provided.
5. Each competitor is allowed to bring one (1) helper to the competition.
6. Each competitor must create one (1) Traditional Thai Carving piece with an emphasis on uniqueness.
7. Each participant will have a full three hours to complete the competition.
8. Competitors must waive the rights to use the Competitor's name for any marketing materials related to this event, including but not limited to use on the internet, printed materials, video, press releases, and advertisements.
9. The Carving Competition reserves the right to reschedule the date of the event or eliminate a competitor if necessary (i.e. competitors dropping out or becoming ill during the competition, violating any rules, etc.) with no registration fee refunded.
10. The Carving Competition will not be held liable for cancellation or postponement of the competition in the event of a natural occurrence or terrorism that is out of the organizer's control.
11. Judges will evaluate and score each entrant on their technical skills based on the following criteria: Innovation (10), Uniqueness (10), and Arrangement (10).
12. All decisions made by the judges are final.

REMARKS:

- All art will be kept on display at an exhibition on Sunday, May 22, 2016.
- Prior to the competition, every competitor must sign a "hold harmless waiver" provided by the organizer.
- Every effort has been made to assure that the competition is safe; however, competitors are required to waive all liability claims that may arise from participation in this event, including injury.